

THE FOUR REALMS OF PROPHECY

A free introduction for the upcoming class on the Four Realms of Prophecy is scheduled for Monday, August 12, 2024, at 7 PM (EST) on Zoom, ID # 822 2991 8037. Below is a description of the class. Should you have any questions, please text email to PhemiSchool@gmail.com

In this course, you will learn about the Four Realms of Prophecy, enabling you to understand your prophetic gift's different operations and administrations. Like Jeremiah, God called, sanctified, and ordained Jeremiah to be a prophet before “he was formed in his mother’s womb.” God was particular about Jeremiah’s calling. He told him that his assignment was to nations and kingdoms. God put His words into Jeremiah’s mouth and told him exactly what to do. God said, “root out, pull down, destroy, throw down, the build and plan.” Jeremiah’s assignment was to destroy idolatry and wickedness and turn the people’s hearts back to God (Jeremiah 1:4-5). You must understand your call and assignment to fulfill the call of God upon your life. This course is essential to your understanding and will assist in answering questions about the prophetic gift, your assignment, and how to perform God’s will for your life. This is a nine-week course, and the fee is usually $300.00; payment plans are available. The class begins on Zoom on Monday, August 26, 2024, at 7 PM (EST). Online assignments are available starting on August 26 as well. Once you register for the class, you will receive the Zoom ID and the online location for the online assignments.

FOUR PROPHETIC REALMS

As you go through the training, you will note that each administration and operation of the Four Prophetic Realms differs. Learning the prophetic characteristics of these Realms will help you better identify and understand your prophetic gift, your purpose, and how to use the gift.

Below is a general overview of each of the Four Realms of Prophecy:

Realm One Prophecy (the Rhema Word), The Preaching of the Word of God. The Greek word, Phemi, means to ‘speak.’ Subsequently, the word means one who speaks for someone else (i.e., the prophet speaks for God). All Who Preach, Teach, or Evangelize Operate In Realm One Prophecy

Most gospel preachers do not identify as prophets or prophetesses when sharing the Word of God. Zechariah, the father of John the Baptist, prophesied about the arrival of the Messiah (Luke 1:67); however, he did not claim to be a prophet.

Paul, who did not regard himself as a prophet, preached using plain speech under the power and anointing of the Holy Spirit. He understood the Word of God's transformative ability, a power that can inspire and motivate all who preach or teach it. If you are a preacher, teacher, or evangelist, you are a Realm One Prophet.

Realm Two Prophecy, The Spirit of the Prophet. You do not have to be a prophet to prophesy. The Holy Spirit sometimes uses people to prophesy, but they possess neither the Gift of Prophecy nor operate out of the Office of the Prophet. Amos was not a prophet; he was a herdsman. However, God used him to prophesy. Paul said he desired all to prophesy (1 Cor. 14:5). God is sovereign and uses whomever He pleases. The Holy Spirit may move upon you to hear His voice and prophesy even if you do not have one of the prophetic gifts. Do you want to be used to prophesy? You don't want to miss this teaching.

Realm Three Prophecy, The Gift of Prophecy. This is the Gift mentioned in First Corinthians 12:10 and First Corinthians 14:2. It is a Gift of grace given by Jesus Christ (Eph. 4:7) according to your proportion of faith (Romans 12:6). Realm Three prophets generally function out of some of the other sixty-one spiritual gifts found in the Bible. Do you have this gift? God has included numerous miraculous functions with this gift. However, few know how to implement them, and they are dominant. Are you fully exercising your gift?

Realm Four Prophecy, The Office of the Prophet. The person serving in the Office of the Prophet also functions in the Word of Knowledge, the Word of Wisdom, Discerning of Spirits, Prophecy, Working of Miracles, and some of the other sixty-one Spiritual Gifts found in God's word, the Bible. Not many walk into the Office of the Prophet. We read of individuals such as Elijah and Elisha in the Old Testament, to name a few. However, some walk into the Office of the Prophet today.
